Special Bulletin

INFORMATION WANTED

On April 18, 1981, the remains of an unidentified male were located off Soledad Canyon Road in Santa Clarita, CA. The victim was estimated to be between 20 and 28 years of age and it was thought that he had been at the location where he was found for less than one year. He had a heavy build, thick eyebrows, and long dark brown hair.

The victim was wearing blue Levi button-front jeans, a loose knit green sweater with a hand-sewn zipper on the front, and a short-sleeve light yellow shirt with "Mel's Blizzard Room" embroidered on the back. The shirt is identified as a "Shorty's Bowlaway" type and a "George London Original" brand. The shirt has been out of manufacture for over 30 years, and may have been purchased by the victim at a used clothing store.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Sheriff's Homicide Bureau.
