INFORMATION WANTED

On July 13, 1986, the remains of a deceased female were located in a desert near 138th Street and 220th Street in Lancaster, California. The victim was estimated to be between 18 and 20 years of age and she had short brown hair. She was wearing a white Fajer brand T-shirt with a black, white and red Mickey Mouse cartoon character and the phrase Macho Mouse beneath the picture. The character had the letters T and J on its middle finger. A portion of the T-shirt image is shown above. She was also wearing blue Wrangler brand jeans, two costume post earrings, and plastic bracelets.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Sheriff's Homicide Bureau.
